

Ambla Coated Fabrics – 10-year guarantee

Uniroyal Global Limited warrants that its Ambla coated fabrics will meet the technical specifications stated at the time of manufacture and will perform to industry standards under normal usage conditions with proper maintenance.

This warranty applies for ten years from the date of delivery to the direct customer. Any product damage resulting from misuse, improper application, or inadequate maintenance is not covered under this warranty.

Warranty Limitations and Exclusions

Ambla's warranty excludes:

- Damage from improper application, harsh chemicals, solvent based chemicals, or incompatible adhesives.
- Stains from external contaminants such as dyes, grease, suntan lotion, or teak oils, as examples.
- Negligence, improper storage, or modifications to the material.
- Wear and tear from natural disasters or exposure to extreme conditions.
- Noncompliance with Ambla's care guidelines.
- Continuous exposure to natural or artificial ultraviolet light.

If a warranty claim is approved, Uniroyal Global Limited will indemnify the value of the original material, minus a 10% depreciation per year from the original delivery date. Repairs or reupholstering are excluded from this warranty.

Claim Requirements

Claims must be submitted in writing within 30 days of defect discovery.

Compliance with care guidelines (available on Ambla's website) is necessary to uphold the warranty.

Warranty must be activated by completing activation form, within 30 days of order receipt.

(This limited warranty represents the exclusive remedies and liabilities of Ambla concerning defective or non-conforming products. No additional warranties, express or implied, are granted. Warranty activation must have been completed and submitted.)

